GRAPE GROWERS AND LOCAL OPTION

What the State Association Has to Say About the Anti-Saloon League in Its Efforts to Dry Up California

Despite the assurances of the Rev Dr. Bristol of the Anti-Saloon League that they are not after the wineries, we believe that it behooves the wine makers and grape growers to keep their eyes open and not swallow the sugar-coated pills being passed out by the leaders of the Anti-Saloon League.

After looking the matter straight in the face, no sane winemaker believes that that the Anti-Saloon League intends to telerate him any longer than is absolutely necessary. It is true certain concessions were made to the wine interests in the Wyllie Local Option Bill, but that was a case of policy on the part of the leaders. They knew they must be "good" if they hoped to get any kind of any option bill through at the last session.

The wine men argue that if the Anti-Saloon people wanted to be fair to the vicitultural industry of this state, there would have been no need to amend the bill as at first introduced. And they naturally ask why certain provisions, conceded later, were not included in the original bill.

We think we can safely say that it was because our "friends," the Rev. Drs Gandier, Chapman, Bristol, Bane and the other paid leaders, hoped to get their measure through without any concessions. But when they realized the public would not stand for their radical measure they amended it sufficiently to satisfy a few weak-kneed legislators who were trying to carry water on both shoulders.

The arguments of those in favor of the option bill were that since wine was not a saloon drink, the the wine industry would not suffer by the closing of all the saloons; in fact, if anything, it would increase the consumption of wine.

Very well, if wine is not sold in the saloon, where is it used? With meals in the home, in the cafe, hotel, restaurant and club. Knowing this full well, why did not the Anti-Saloon League encourage its use in this way? Why did they not approve Senator L. T. Juilliard's amendment to allow the cafes, hotels and restaurants to serve wine with bona fide meals in dry territory, if it was only the saloon they were after?

We believe it was because, once they have the saloons closed they hope to harass and eventually wipe out our viticultural industry. In an article in the Ramona Times one of their leaders was quoted as saying:

"As temperance legislation advances, it becomes evident that the forces of righteousness have another element with which to cope besides the outlawed saloon. A more insidious and, in some respects, more dangerous propo ition has arisen in the legalized winery. These institutions are little better than the open saloon, and it is time for the temp rance forces of the state to align themselves for a new battle that shall effectually wipe out this latest and most troublesome foe of temperace."

Could anything be plainer? Can any wine man doubt their intentions after this?

When the Wyllie Local Option Bill was being considered before the Senate Public Morals Committee, the Rev Dr. Gandier, upon being questioned by Senator Juilliard as to whether the bill was not an entering wedge for prohibition, remarked without hesitation: "Whenever the people of California are ready for prohibition, I propose to see that they shall have it."

That ought to make every wine man realize that the Anti-Saloon League hopes not only to dry up California, but eventually to close every winery if possible. That is the history of the organization in every state in which they have operated. That will be their next step here.

Listen to what the Rev. P. A Baker, general superintendent of the American Anti-Saloon League said the other day in Los Angeles, speaking at Immanuel Presbyterian Church: "There have been two slight reverses in the midst of our great advancement during the past year. Indiana, which had county option, and under which seventy counties had outlawed the liquor traffic, by her last Legislature, reduced the unit from the county local option to municipal, ward and township option. This was done in obedience to the recommendation and under the leadership of her present Governor, who a Democrat, commits his party to the policy he has pursued.

"Alabama, which secured statutory prohibition by her last Legisature, so modified the law as practically to give local option. This action was opposed by the Anti-Saloon League. We are always glad to advance from local option to State-wide prohibition, but not to go from prohibition to local option."

Bear this in mind, wine makers and grape growers, the Anti-Saloon League is "always glad to advance from local option to State-wide prohibition."

Dr. Bane, in addressing the International Sunday-School Convention in San Francisco, also said: "We have made liquor selling disreputable; we must now strive to make liquor drinking disreputable."

That means wine also, for the Anti-Saloon League shakes us all up in one bag, wine, beer and whiskey.

In other words, because Dr. Bane and the other leaders do not approve of people drinking choice California wines and want to hold down their jobs, they will attempt to take a step forward and in 1913 attempt to pass a law that will prevent any one from securing our native wines

Last, but not least, we want to show up our "friend," the Rev. Dr. Irving Bristol, the Anti-Saloon Achilles, who was the Rev Dr. Gandier's shadow at the last session of the Legislature, being present at all meetings but remaining silent while the drafter of the Local Option Bill did the talking.

However, every wine man knows that Bristol is his enemy. Two years ago he showed this conclusively in Sacramento, when he damned everyone connected with the famous grape arbor of fourteen wine makers, which proved to be the most beautiful State Fair exhibit of its kind ever seen.

When it was announced that wine would be ser ed, in a sensational attack on the wine makers, this Christian gentlemen ransacked his mental carpet bag for the choicest and most fiery assortment of words he could pick out. Here are a few gems of his speech printed in the Record Union showing how shocked he was:

"The conception of such an exhibit comes from a red-hot shovel of hell. The brain that dared to conceive and project such an outrage on decency was inflamed by the idea, wine, women and song, an expression used to describe a form of life so immoral that civilization mention it with bated breath."

Imagine! However, having lashed himself up to such a pitch of indignation, the voluble Bristol could not be expected to suddenly turn off his flow of "sarcasm," as the papers called it. He went on as follows: "I know of no greater effrontery offered to modern society than this brazen effort to reintroduce a custom belonging to an age of national decadence. We wonder where in all this state are to be found the beautiful and accomplished enchantresses who will offer themselves upon the altar of sacrifice. Will the wives and daughters of the management, whoever they may be? The public will associate them with their less fortunate sisters who have fallen through the wine cup. Wine and women! For decency's sake, let not this outrage be perpetrated. If no appeal will reach the manhood of those in charge, let them place conspicuous signs notifying the visitors to the booth that where wine has inflamed the passions, no insults will be permitted to the pretty barmaids, as they are not the class who are usually associated with wine and women."

How does that strike you, Mr. Wine Maker and Mr. Grape Grower! Truly the Rev. Dr. Bristol has a vivid imagination, but in justice to the wine men, we must chronicle the fact that 10,000 people visited the grape arbor at Sacremento and tasted our excellent California wines without having their passions inflamed or showing the slightest discourtesy to the refined young women who served them. Men, women and children visited the arbor and smiled in amusement at the hugh sign that covered a W. C. T. U. booth overhead, which read, "Wine is a Mocker."

After all this, the Anti-Saloon League, can hardly believe that wine men and grape growers will look upon the local option bill as a blessing in disguise. No, they intend to vote against local option to a man.

Chas. Spindler's Weekly Letter on Local Option.

Mr. Editor:

Coming now to the paragraph in Mr. B's letter of January 26th, in which he describes how he was "stopped" on the road to Sonoma, not by those law-breaking saloon men or robbers, but by a gentleman who asked him how Mr. B. could be paid for his service (I believe developing and drying-up the valley) and his laconic answer: "I don't want anything, but stand by my editor." I want to ask: "What is the difference?"

In previous issues I have tried to show how it appears to me what Mr. B. has done and is trying to do, and his editor helps him, viz: to reduce values in the valley to such a low grade that Mr. B. can buy up, and after the people have waked from the nightmare of a dry spell of a couple of years, he has the goods to sell, namely wasted land with good air above, at his price, and the only open question beyond calculation is: "Can he stop the ball when once rolling?" H. H. Rogers of Standard Oil fame could not stop the ball when he began the crusade against his enemies in copper stocks, and the ball rolled on and on, and we had a panic, not forgotten yet. Values go down quick enough, but it takes a long time for these to recuperate.

Mr. B. says he had the assurance that he would have been elected had he made friends with the saloonkeepers. Since then they have existed without his friendship, and presently they have to stand a lot of abuse, and the performance of mud-slinging is disgusting. Instead of persuasion, Mr. B. and the Expositor threaten. Instead of demanding law and order, they challenge instinctive resistance, and instead of arguing on sound principles and facts they issue falsehoods, thereby arousing resentment and defiance.

Closing this answer to Mr. B's challenging letter, I once more want to quote that great economic philosopher, Henry George, and his ideas on treating the drink-evil, as laid down in an article in the Arena: "I am a Believer in Free Rum." "High license gives the Government stamp of permission and causes high prices for drinks, or the adulteration of drinks. Adulterated liquors, made with raw and crude alcohol as a basis, are irritant poisons and are responsible for very much of the evil of the drink habit; while high license also is the chief cause of the treating curse, so common in America. If we had free rum, we would have pure and cheap drinks—so cheap that people would no more think of treating one another on liquor than they do now on coffee or tea.

"Sound morality would be better conserved by the removal of tax on liquor, relying on the direct appeal to the reason and ideal of right in the individual. It is not so much more legislation as a nobler ideal of duty in the individual that is needed, and the most discouraging circumstance in the situation is found in the hold, which the materialism of the market has taken on the popular imagination, and the increasing power over church and school being exerted by the princes of privilege, who stand for low business ideals and whose wealth, largely gained by indirection, is being effectively used to bribe into silence the agencies that should be devoted to the spiritual and moral development of the individual and the social organism."

Continuing with Mr. B's appeal to the women in our valley and their sisters living over the mountains, I want to say that General Grant, commander of the Northern Division marched at the head of the Temperance Parade at Chicago two years ago and his wife signed the petition asking Congress to repeal the law abolishing the canteen. This petition was signed by 2,200 wives and daughters of army officers, which goes to show that women are correctly called the better half, at least when it comes to logical thinking.

With reference to the "Loss to Mankind by the Demon Alcohol," for instance the horrible death rate from alcoholism, I quote from the U. S. Census, 1909:

Death from alcoholism, male	2,270
Death from alcoholism, female	308
	2,578
Death from railroad accidents—
Employees	2,358
Passengers	249
Other persons	5,813
	8,400
Deaths from tuberculosis—
Male	39,456
Female	30,584

Almost 28 times as many die from drinking milk as from drinking alcohol! And should we not stop that moloch railroad to save 8,400 lives a year? This is just as absurd as the advice to close all banks to prevent bank robbing and embezzling. Still it can be done easier than "to prevent drunkenness by closing saloons."

I have copied only three items. Other causes of death—typhoid, pneumonia, and all such as cannot be claimed as due to alcoholism—make the figure 2,578 appear very small, in fact more perish in automobile accidents annually. Autos are dangerous to the people within as well as unconcerned passersby, whereas drinkers keep the risk to themselves. The lowest rate from tuberculosis we find in Bavaria, Germany, where the human race is brought up, first with mother milk, a short while butter-milk, and then beer, and on account of beer not having quite the nutritive value of milk, they drink the beer accordingly. This class of drinkers very rarely become drunkards.

Col. Henry Watterson, editor, in Louisville, Ky., writes from Munich, the capitol of Bavaria, under date of April 16th, 1911: "The question of prohibition is unknown here. The moral zealot would be considered a crank. Beer is not drink only, but food for population. The consumption of alcoholic drinks in proportion to that of beer is exceedingly small. Beer and light wines constitute the national beverage equally for the rich and poor. The many beautiful gardens and halls where drinks are dispensed, having comfortable tables and chairs, are crowded after work hours and Sundays with people, all joining together in a republic of pleasure, drinking in moderation, while enjoying the best of music. Upon many journeys through Germany, I have never seen one single case of drunkenness in any of these halls and gardens."

The Hon. Andrew D. White says in his book on reminiscences: "I found on twelve different sojourns through Italy, where all people, men, women and children, drink wine, to be the most temperate country I have ever seen."

But the boy brought up at home with coffee or tea, never seeing or touching the forbidden fruit—beer and wine—when leaving the motherly wings and going to college, where he wants to be sociable as they call it, is then doomed to fall into the hands of the devil by drinking whiskey.

I assert, without fear of successful contradiction, that man will progress along temperance lines by education and cultivating the will power more rapidly than by prohibitory laws which do not prohibit.

It is conceded by competent and incorruptible authorities that the only sane and safe way of promoting temperance is a well regulated license system. All others and radical remedies have proven failures.

I am opposed to vice and crime in every form. I am for strict regulation of saloons, as well as other places where people gather. Experience has shown that prohibitory laws have a tendency to incubate hypocrisy and increase drunkenness.

This is where I stand towards Mr. B's promoting and dry developing the valley letter and dogma.

LOCAL OPTION ELECTION MAY SIXTH

Supervisors Fixed Date Last Monday for the Struggle Between Wets and Drys in This District.

At an adjourned meeting of the Board of Supervisors, held last Monday, the date for holding the Local Option election in this Supervisorial district was set for Monday, May 6th.

The date originally set by the Supervisors for the contest between the wets and drys was on May 14th, the date of the Presidential preference primary election. This date was selected by the Supervisors as it would save the taxpayers at least $1500 could it legally be held on the 14th inst. The Appellate Court, however, has decided the primary election on that date is not a general election, and hence the change.

The change, while not to the liking of the taxpayers, who will have to foot the bill of $1500, will meet with the approval of both the wets and drys—the drys, because from their viewpoint a separate election will bring out all the prohibitionist fanatics. The wets, because, when it comes to confiscating private property, they and their friends will be right there with the votes to defeat one of most unjust and cruel propositions ever submitted to the suffrages of the people of this Supervisorial district. In other words, when it comes right down to voting on May 6th the people will all be "fanatics" on that day. Before adjourning the Supervisors also named June 11th for holding the Local Option election in Supervisor Green's district, which is virtually dry territory already, there being less than half a dozen saloons in that district. In addition to naming the date of the two special elections the Supervisors also selected the officers for to conduct such elections as well as for the Presidential primary election.

An Enjoyable Affair.

The dance which was tendered to the pupils of the High School, their parents and the alumni by the Mother's Club of Sonoma took place on Friday evening of last week in Woodman Hall on Broadway. The Bateman-Knolle orchestra furnished the music for dancing, which was kept up until 12 o'clock. During the evening a vocal duet was well rendered by Misses Nancy Bates and Gladys Simmons. Delicious refreshments were also served.

An Excellent Performance

J. M. Busby's Minstrels played to a crowded tent last night. They were by far the best minstrels that ever visited the city under canvas. They have an excellent performance, especially the dancing, while the old time minstrel performance and songs delighted the audience. They carry a fine band and are a tunfeul, musical, talented crowd.—Yates Center Advocate. Sonoma, Tuesday, April 30.

The property is assessed to W. O. Hocker, which is mortgaged to Mrs. Baines of El Verano for $2500. The property has been offered to Mrs. Fetters for an advance of $200 over the mortgage.

A Good Show.

The colored minstrels were witnessed by a large and appreciative audience here last Tuesday evening. It is very seldom that we get to see as good a minstrel show as this one except in the larger cities. The darkies were right there, both in singing and dancing and were encored to almost every number.

The show carries a fine brass band which rendered some excellent music.—Genesco Post. Sonoma, Tuesday, April 30.

Local Option and Crime In Bishop, Inyo County.

The Prohibiton paper of this city, in its issue of February 9th, in order to bolster up its crusade against the summer resorts of this valley, representing an investment of over a million dollars, and close them up, publishes a letter from a fellow prohibitionist of Bishop, Inyo County, boasting of what Local Option had done for that town, since July, 1910. Among other things much stress was placed upon the effect of the closing of the saloons in Bishop upon crime in that city. The writer in speaking of that phase of the subject said:

"When we closed the saloons there were more than thirty-five prisoners in the county jail and its branches. Two months later the number had been reduced to two and still later there was not one prisoner in any jail of the county. The expenses for police officers, court trials, care of prisoners, etc., have been almost entirely eliminated. There have been some attempts to evade the law by illegally selling liquors, but the peace officers have acted promptly and every person violating this law has been convicted and the fines secured from such, in addition to jail sentences, have been sufficient to pay the cost of detection and prosecution."

Now, for the sequel of this much boasted reform for Bishop. As has been stated in these columns right along Local Option does not lesson crime in any community. On the contrary, it is productive of blind pigs, illicit stills and many other law-breaking devices to evade the law. So it is in Bishop. On the night of the 13th inst., while Constable Walter Reed and Marshal Robinson of that city were raiding a blind pig conducted by a Chinese named Gee Dong, the former was instantly killed and the latter desperately wounded by the Chinese, who in turn was slain by the wounded officer after he had been shot twice.

Now, this is only one instance of the mischief wrought by Local Option in towns and communities which have been misled by the fanatics into closing up their hotel bars and saloons and inviting violations of the law in their midst.

Let the women and men voters of the First Supervisorial district bear this in mind when they go to the polls on Monday, May 6th, and cast their votes against Local Option. It is the duty of those who favor law and order in the community to do this.

Local Optionists Downed In Contra Costa County.

At the Local Option election held in four Supervisorial districts of Contra Costa County, last Monday, the wets won out in every one of the districts by a vote in their favor of almost two to one. The total vote cast in the four districts was 2670 wet and 1306 dry, as follows:

No One—Wet, 728; dry, 246. No Two—Wet, 888; dry, 246. No Three—Wet, 454; dry, 125. No Five—Wet, 600; dry 398.

The election in the Fourth Distsict will be held May 14th.

The result was a great disappointment to the fanatical prohibitionists who would rule or ruin the country.

FOR THE WOMAN WHO THINKS AND FEELS.

Some women complain that they periodically suffer from dull and heavy feelings, or dizziness in the head, nervousness, pain and bearing-down feelings which should not occur to the normal healthy woman. But most every woman is subject to these pains at some time in her life, due to abnormal conditions in life, such as corsets, over-taxed strength, bad air, poor or improper food, wet feet, sluggish liver, etc. A regulator and female tonic made from native medicinal roots with pure glycerin, and without the use of alcohol, called has proven its value in thousands of cases, like the following:

MRS. MARTIN.

MRS. DONA M. MARTIN, of Auburn, Nebr., Route 1, Box 84, says: "I thought I would write you in regard to what your medicines have done for me. I have used them for thirty years for female trouble and general weakness with the very best result, and they have saved me hundreds of dollars in doctors' bills. I buy the 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and take them together. I never was disappointed in your remedies and take pleasure in recommending them to any suffering lady. I am now almost fifty years old; at forty-five I took your medicines, both kinds, and I passed that period very easily and left me fat and healthy. I feel like a young girl. "If any lady cares to write me, I will gladly tell her more about the good work of your medicines."

JAPANESE STEALS WHITE MAN'S WIFE

Also Purloins Her Husband's Clothes to Delay Pursuit.

(By Archibald McKiver, El Verano Corr.)

The Japanese wife of Harry Irvine, a white man of this valley, was kidnapped last Saturday night by a Japanese printer of San Francisco named G. I. Sasaki, who has secreted the woman in that city. In order to prevent immediate pursuit by the husband the wily Jap entered his sleeping apartment and carried off his clothes while was asleep. Irvine was formerly foreman of the Blakeman ranch north of this place, but has recently been employed on the J. K. Bigelow ranch. When he woke up Sunday morning he discovered the loss of his wife and every stitch of his clothing. Borrowing a suit of clothes from a fellow employee on the ranch Irvine started in pursuit of his fleeing wife and her Japanese escort, taking the train here for San Francisco after satisfying himself that the couple had fled in that direction. Upon his arrival in the metropolis he got a clew as to the identity of the man who had stolen his wife and purloined his wearing apparel. He located the kidnapper in the office of the World, a Japanese newspaper, where he was employed as a printer. On Wednesday Mr. Irvine swore out a warrant against the Japanese, charging him with kidnapping, and he was subsequently arrested and jailed. Sasaki was then sweated but with the stoicism of his race refused to divulge the whereabouts of the woman. At this writing Mr. Irvine is still searching for his beautiful Geisha girl bride in the metropolis. It is said the elopement had been longed planned and that the Japanese lover had hired a buggy in Petaluma and drove to the Bigelow ranch late Saturday night during Irvine's absence in Sonoma, and then the elopers made good their get away via the former city.

Nervous? Thin? Pale?

Are you easily tired, lack your usual vigor and strength? Then your digestion must be poor, your blood must be thin, your nerves must be weak. You need a strong tonic. You need Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. We believe your doctor will endorse these statements. Ask and find out.

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

Miss M. Myers, a charming young lady from San Francisco, is a guest this week at the Oak Grove Resort.

Quite a crowd from here attended the dance at Vineyard Villa last Saturday evening and all report an enjoyable time.

John Lounibos is making many improvements at his winery here. A. E. Warriner and Wm. Minkel are doing the work.

Mrs. C. Darling, accompanied by her charming daughter of San Francisco, are guests at the Spindler residence this week.

Henry Norrbom is building a neat bungalow next to his blacksmith shop here and will move in with his family as soon as it is completed.

P. Rossi of the Swiss-American Hotel has completed his new arbor in front of the hotel and no doubt when it gets its foilage it will be a credit to El Verano.

The El Verano Villa is soon to have electric lights in every room. Proprietor Louis Lamotte is making arrangements to have them installed as soon as possible.

A number of devil-machines from Santa Rosa passed through the valley Sunday. These machines are made for two and are called the Indian Motorcycle. A number of our bloods are contemplating purchasing these "gas burners" for the summer season.

M. F. Mullen has put up some new hitching post at his store here, which is a great accommodation to the public. He has also just received a fine stock of the latest summer hats.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kidd, (nee Bernice Pickle,) who were married in Santa Rosa the latter part of last week, have returned to El Verano after a honeymoon trip to the southern part of the state.

Lloyd Riser and George Weaver, the two well-known society chaps and party-going lads, were among the many who attended the grand ball at Glen Ellen last Saturday evening. The boys report a good time.

The bus drivers of our different resorts are now sporting caps upon which are inscribed the name of the hotel for which each is running for. Gus Bastian wore his last Sunday and it becomes him to perfection.

Joe Haden, an old time Astor blacksmith and boxer, has accepted a position as head bartender at Paul Vannucchi's resort, near Verano. Joe has been a mixer of note in some of the largest cafes in the United States.

A fine bull pup belonging to the French Cottage has either been lost, stolen or strayed away. Eugene Detil, the owner, is making a thorough search for the fighting canine and offers a liberal reward for the return of the "dawg," either dead or alive.

O. C. Benjamin, proprietor of the Bellevue Hotel, was a close friend of Captain Edward Smith of the ill-fated Titanic, which sank a couple of weeks ago. Mr. Benjamin was quite schocked on receiving the news, as he and the captain were old-time friends.

Two automobiles crashed into buggies from our stables, between here and Petaluma, this week. Albert Rossi, while driving to Lakeville Wednesday morning had a large touring car hit his cart, breaking the shaft and slightly injuring the horse. Being a good linesman Rossi escaped injury.

Everybody, both wet and dry, are glad that the long-talked-of Local Option election has at last been set for the 6th of May, and it will be a good thing when this question is settled, so that the people here may once more get down to business. Both sides are confident and a bitter fight will be fought out at the polls.

The entertainment to be given by the Ladies' Aid of the Congregational Church at Union Hall on Thursday, May 2nd, bids fair to be one of the most beautiful and unique ever arranged by this body of busy workers. The romantic legends of the Ah-wah-nee-chees, the tribe of Indians inhabiting the beautiful Yosemite Valley before the days of the white man, will be given in story, song and tableaux. Special scenery, is being painted by Mrs. Wicker and the tribe will be represented by about twenty of our talented young people.

Paul Vannucchi returned home from Santa Rosa the latter part of the week.

Frank Jeffers, well-knowh house cleaner of Kenwood, is in town this week. Any one wanting anything done in that line would do well to see him.

Harry Jacobson, a prominent caterer who runs one of the largest restaurants in the Potrero, San Francisco, was a visitor in our valley last Sunday. Harry says when he retires from business he intends to make his home somewhere in the beautiful Sonoma Valley.

A San Francisco summer visitor, while driving to Petaluma Tuesday was struck by a machine which was driven by a commercial traveler. The rig was badly damaged and the occupant slightly bruised. As it was, the accident occurred on a down hill grade and while the drummer went to render his assistance to the driver of the buggy the former's auto ran away from him. He succeeded in overtaking the benzine wagon and bringing it to a standstill. The buggy was then patched up and the stranger continued on his way to Chicaluma, little the worse for the mishap.

The first new spring style has arrived in town. It is something that our young men are wearing and is most disgusting to the eye. We refer to the young jays who wear their pants turned up on the bottom nearly to their knees, and it is no wonder that they got the name of "hayseeds." With a new pair of the latest hosiery, it is certainly a joke to see these young striplings floating around town. It's a sure thing that Broadway in New York don't know that these fellows are around or they would certainly import them to that town. Get on to yourselves, boys, you're the laugh of the burg.

ARCHIBALD MCKIVER.

El Verano, April 26, 1912.

Woman's Club Notes.

An unusually large attendance gathered last Friday for the social afternoon of the Woman's Club expecting to listen to an inspiring talk from Dr. A. M. Thomson on the means for beautifying Sonoma before 1915, but urgent professional business prevented his attendance, so the time was very kindly filled by Messrs. Dresel, Campbell, Painter and Piatt, each of whom presented most practicable ideas as to how Sonoma could be improved and also advertised. It is a fact that Sonoma is "not on the map" to the majority of the people of California. It needs aggressive advertising, and its natural beauties and attractions should be forced to the attention of homeseekers and tourists in the same wide-awake way so successfully being operated by the towns of the state that are growing rapidly away from us.

Music for the afternoon was pleasingly rendered by Mrs. Emparan and Miss H. Clewe and later tea and cakes were served by Mrs. Wicker, the afternoon's hostess.

Senator Ruth to Speak on "Prohibition a Failure"

Senator A. S. Ruth of Olympia, who is a candidate for the office of Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Washington, will deliver a lecture on the local option law, on Saturday evening, at Club Hall, Cotati, at 8 o'clock sharp. We have had a number of speakers discuss the local option bill from the dry standpoint, so it will be interesting to hear this vital topic treated from the wet side. The Senator will also speak in Penngrove later on the same evening.

Senator Ruth is a native of Maine and has had ample opportunity to study and see the workings of prohibition both as a boy and as a man. That he is a visitor of recognized worth is attested by the fact that he is the only resident of Washington who has been elected to the state senate three consecutive times and the only man, in fact, ever given three consecutive terms in the legislature while Washington was a territory or state.

Representing as he does the 22nd senatorial district at Washington, with his home and conctituents in the city of Olympia, the capitol of the state, his people do not have to depend upon the press for their reports of his work, but can watch him from the gallery of the capitiol. This remarkable political achievement is one of which Senator Ruth is very proud. He was president of the Senate during the 1909 session and on his last election his majority was almost three times what it was on his two previous elections.

For several months Senator Ruth has been traveling through the State of California discussing the subject of prohibition in all the large cities voting on "license or no-license," and everywhere he has been greeted with crowded houses that have listened with intense interest to his exposition of the dangers of prohibition which he characterizes as a "farce, failure and fraud." At least half of his audiences are made up of women who are anxious to hear both sides of the question before making up their minds how they shall vote on this important question.
